Foreword

This edition of the Devil Daze has been published with but one objective—to record the activities of this year between its covers. We hope that this book will bring to mind the priceless memories of your days at Wayne High.

The public school gives to America unity, character, prosperity, and strength. It is here where boys and girls come from all walks of life to meet on an equal footing, to learn a common language and purpose —effective citizenship. Truly, the open door of the school is the fittest symbol of Democracy.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students of Wayne High, your 1955-1956 Devil Daze.

Edward Seymour, Paul Mines, Albert Kern, Burr Davis, Carl Nuss, and Mrs. Donald Wightman.

Directing the Present and the Future

Any organization to be effective and truly purposeful must rely upon far-sighted and keen-minded leaders. The people of Wayne have elected five men and one woman for their leaders to direct the Wayne City Schools. These six individuals in turn have chosen Superintendent E. W. Willert and Principal F. H. Rickers to administer the affairs of the educational program.

This capable group has worked unceasingly to provide steadily improving educational opportunities for the young people of this community and to make Wayne High a school of which to be proud.

In addition to overseeing the scholastic side of education and making repairs to the present school plant, the administration has secured a ten-acre tract of land this past year to be used for future building purposes.

E. W. WILLERT

Mr. E. W. Willert has served as superintendent at Wayne City Schools for the past seven years. He did his undergraduate work at Chadron State Teachers College and Midland College, and he obtained his Masters Degree at the University of Nebraska.

F. H. RICKERS

Mr. F. H. Rickers has been teacher and principal at Wayne City Schools for the past twelve years. He has earned his AB from Peru State Teachers and his MA from Colorado State College of Education.

Tomorrow Is In

The teachers at Wayne High School desire to help build young folks into effective citizens and to help them reach their individual objectives in life. They recognize that each student is an individual, with his own problems, strong points, and weaknesses. From this beginning, teachers develop and train the minds and hands of these young people

ACTIVITIES

Ellen Schulz was business manager of this year's annual staff, and these staff members helped to secure funds to make this annual possible by either selling ads or selling annuals.

The Devil Daze staff would like to take this means to express a very sincere thank you to all advertisers, students, teachers, and friends who have helped to publish this annual.

'56 Staff

Judy Woods, Sandra Davis, Bee Kollomorgen, Bill Kern, and Ellen Schulz pick up some pointers for this year's book while attending a meeting in Lincoln.

Two more students, Sally Beckenhauer and Loreta Damme, make sure they have an annual reserved as Larry Hofeldt and Dennis Kern make out their receipts.

Here Comes the Band!

The band honors the school by making a "W."

Mr. Green raises his baton and another season of summer band concerts in Bressler Park begins.

Although much of the marching was done by the 45-piece marching band, the entire senior band turned out to participate at the Harvest of Harmony, Fall Opening, Homecoming, and State Fair.

The band did not enter the contest at the Harvest of Harmony in Grand Island because rules state that the first year a band attends, it may not compete. The band is looking forward to when it may enter the contest.

Many Second Street and Sherman Street residents were awakened to the tunes of "Bombasto," "Chief of Staff," and "Steppin Ili"; for at eight o'clock, the marching band stepped off in time to the nine-piece drum section as they practiced their marching routines.

The marching band is lead by drum majorette Maydelle Echtenkamp and the five majorettes, Judy Kollmorgen, Patty Strong, Patty Olson, Roberta Haas, and Mary Pawelski. High stepping, short skirts, excellent twirling, along with the flash of instruments and blue and gold uniforms, give the band a very flashy effect.

FOURTH ROW: Kenny Dahl, Judy Kollmorgen, Lois Richter, Larry Brandstetter, Patty Olson, Donna Sherbahn, Charles Mellor, Louis Lutt, Jerry Lueders, Norman Pospishil, Brad Hickerson, Bill Kern, Patty Kirsch, Mary Schroeder, Glen Houdersheldt, Eldridge Foster, Chuck Koeber, Director Mr. Green.
PERCUSSION: Patty Strong, Jill Hendrickson, Linda Mau, Bill Macklin, Jane Jeffrey, Neil Stuthmann.

The smaller marching band is made up of those band members who do not play foothall. The band shows, which were arranged by Mr. Green, were usually practiced between 8 and 9 a.m. Monday through Friday. The marching band put on five band shows at football games.

The senior high band consists of 62 members of which 14 are seniors, 17 juniors, 11 sophomores, 11 freshmen, 6 eighth graders, and 3 seventh graders.

Cold weather and the end of football season brought the band inside to work on concert music which makes up the majority of the work in the instrumental department.

The band enjoyed playing the different lighter numbers featuring the sections of the band, such as "Lassus Trombone," "Basses Berserk," and "Drastic Drummin'," but they also enjoyed the challenge of "Orpheus," "Under the Double Eagle," and "The Universal Judgement." The last two were the contest numbers that were played at District contest.

The summer band plays concerts in the city park during most of the summer months. The high school band is joined in the summer by musicians from the College, Hahn

DIRECTOR: Mr. Green.

High, and the community. Many former Wayne High students enjoy playing for these summer concerts.

Wayne is one of the few Class B schools in the state of Nebraska which has an orchestra. The orchestra plays for class plays and graduation exercises. The orchestra was frequently visited by Dr. Bernstein of W.S.T.C. and members of his college orchestra.

There are many small instrumental groups which play for different civic and church functions. Included in this group are the clarinet quartet, woodwind quintet, horn quartet, brass sextet, German band, dance band, and pep band.

Mr. Green who has directed instrumental music at Wayne for three years has worked diligently in making the band, soloists, small groups, and orchestra among the best in Northeast Nebraska.

He has proved to us that music is a big job and one which gives rich rewards.

The clarinet quartet performed for many organizations. Members of the quartet were Gale Bathke, Phyllis Cook, Julie Lamp, and Judy Weible.

To get in senior band is the goal of each junior band member. This group practices from 11:30 to 12 each morning.

Charles Kober, Richard Temme, Jerry Lueders, Fred Proett, Roland Temme, and Jim Hein make up the brass sextet.

An entertaining instrumental group was the Firehouse Five composed of Charles Koeber, Jim Hein, David Ratzlaff, Norman Pospishil, and Fred Proett. Here they are performing at the polio benefit.

A new instrumental group this year was the woodwind quintet. Members of this group were Joyce Cook, Bee Kollmorgen, Mary Pawelski, Mary Wright, and Roberta Haas.

Choir Presents Concert at Joslyn in Omaha

Thy Kingdom Come, O Lord . . . F. M. Christiansen

Jesu, Priceless Treasure . . . . . Bach

The well-known choral by Johann Bach telling of the treasures obtainable by those who believe in Christ.

The Creation . . . . . Richter

Salvation Is Created . . . . . Tschesnokoff

Beautiful Russian Church music beginning with four-part male voices and developing into full eight-part choir.

Grieve Not, O My Soul . . . . . Williams

Wade In De Water . . . . . Arr. Howorth

No religious concert would be complete without a Spiritual. There are two types of spirituals: the quiet, easy flowing type and the rhythmic, spirited and anxious type. This number is from the first group.

Russian Easter Carol Of The Trees . . . . Gaul

Hallelujah, Amen . . . . . Handel

Nunc Dimittis . . . . . Gretchaninoff

Another number from the Russian Liturgy often used as a benediction. This number is especially beautiful because of the low "Russian Bass" and four-part women's chorus.

— INTERMISSION —

Alleluia . . . . . Thompson

The best song of Randall Thompson's compositions, this song is a masterpiece of contrapuntal harmony. Thompson takes the one word and weaves it through the most difficult rhythmic patterns, yet in perfect harmony. With rhythm and harmony, interpretation is the key to the beauty of this number.

Make Me, O Lord God, Pure In Heart . . . Brahms

One of Brahms' few large choral works, this motet begins with five-part "block" chords, develops into a four-part section with emphasis on the tenor voice. The next section is a polyphonic-antiphonal work, or is like a round where the several men's sections begin in the fugal style answered by the women's sections and ending with the men singing a new motif or melody. The last section is a vivace (fast) movement ending in big full chords.

The Spirit Also Helpeth Us . . . . . Bach

No description of this musical masterpiece could do justice to Bach. The number is an eight-part double choir motet displaying all of the things Bach is noted for: melodic value, harmonic plan, contrapuntal solidity, and expressive purpose of thought.

FOURTH ROW: Alyce Baier, Gale Bathke, Don Wightman, Duane Fitch, Ken Dahl, Norman Pospishil, Glen Houdersheldt, Charles Ahlvers, Larry Sheppard, Frederick Rickers, Larry Brandstetter.

The Wayne High School Choir had a very busy season as the accompanying schedule would indicate. They presented five local concerts; in addition to the regular fall, winter, and spring musicales, they participated in a fine arts talent show and a pre-contest concert. The choir, triple trio, thespians, and instrumental music department participated in the fine arts talent show.

The choir for the first time in recent years presented several out-of-town concerts. The concerts were at Midland College on November 8 and at Joslyn Memorial on March 18.

At Midland College, the choir was greeted with applause for their interpretation of the light numbers "Whale of a tale," and "A Dream Is a Wish your Heart Makes," and the more challenging numbers, "Rain and the River," and "Sleep Judea Fair."

The choir was invited to give a convocation concert at the University of Nebraska, but a suitable date could not be found on the schedule.

Another "first" for this year was the tour made to four high schools, Oakland, Wakefield, Wisner, and Pender.

The choir was well represented at the State Music Clinic at Hastings, and the Husker Conference Vocal Clinic at Stanton.

SECOND ROW: Patty Strong, Vernice Vahlkamp, Mary Pawelski, Mary Wright, Jeanette Lamb, Linda Walker, Sandra Davis, Joyce Cook, Sally Beckenhauer, Marilyn Renter, Judy Weible.

At District Music Contest, April 13 and 14, the vocal music department won their share of laurels. The mixed chorus's contest numbers were "The Spirit Also Helpth Us," and "Sing Praises."

Freshman girls made up the girls glee club during the first semester. In the second semester they were supported by the more experienced girls of the choir.

The boys' octet which was organized this year sang numbers such as "Jimmy Brown," "Daddy Get Your Baby out of Jail," and "Cornfield Melodies," for various organizations. In the octet were Larry Brandstetter, David Ratzlaff, Larry Sheppard, Charles Ahlvers, Don Wightman, Glen Houdersheldt, Norman Pospishil, and Bill Finn.

The annual choir party this year was again a steak fry which was held near the end of the school year.

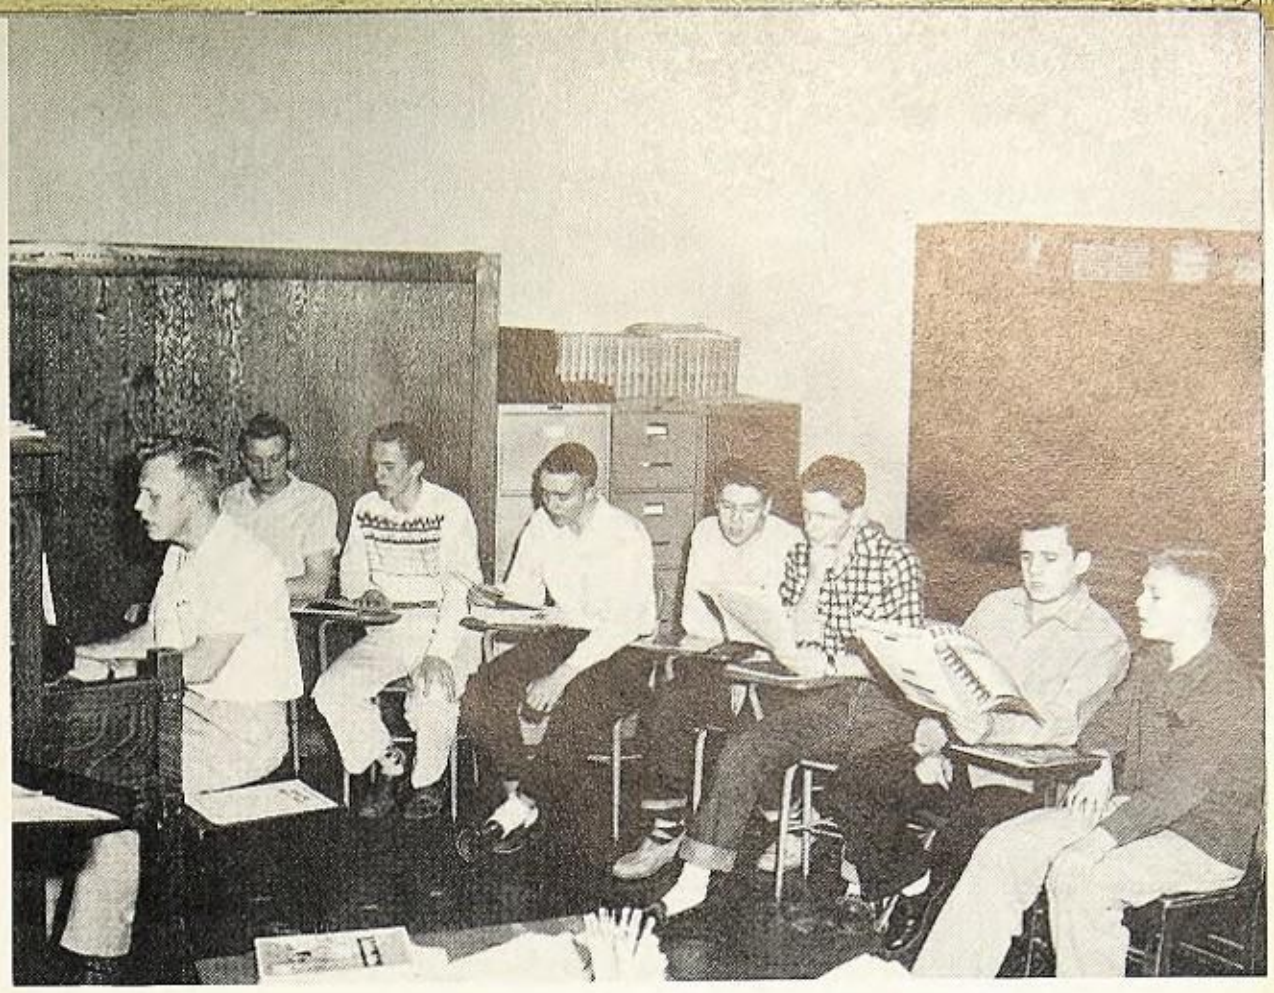
The choir owes much to Mr. Carlson who has been vocal director at the high school during the past four years for his efforts in improving the standards of vocal music.

This group through many hours of practice has developed into one of the Husker Conference's best triple trios.
THIRD ROW: Shiela Hickerson, Judy Woods, Deanna Baier.
SECOND ROW: Phyllis Cook, Mary Wright, Julie Lamp.
FIRST ROW: Lee Ann Hansen, Gale Bathke, Sherry Pryor.
ACCOMPANIST: Bee Kollmorgen.

This group's blend of voices makes for enjoyable listening. Phyllis Cook, Sherry Pryor, and Deanna Baier sing in the senior trio.



This boys' octet, a new vocal group, enjoyed practicing at noon for their public performances. Norman Pospishil, Bill Finn, Don Wightman, Larry Sheppard, Charles Ahlvers, David Ratzlaff, and Larry Brandstetter blend their voices in barbershop harmony as Mr. Carlson gives them their pitches.

Though their performances were few, these girls practiced regularly for the music contest. They are Nancy Sheppard, Carolyn Likes, Bee Kollmorgen, Vernice Vahlkamp, Reneé Wiltse, and Joyce Cook.

SECOND ROW: Judy Korth, La Vonne Lutt, Mary Granquist, Phyllis Cook, Judy Woods, Ellen Schulz, Sandra Davis, Miss Bilson, Miss Ebmeier.

Pep Club Loyal – in Victory or Defeat

Mary Schroeder says, "Who wants to buy this candy apple?"

Cheerleaders--Judy Heinemann, Beverly Milliken, Bee Kollmorgen, Jane Jeffrey, Carolyn Likes.

During the football season the team was spurred on by the band.

Fifty-four Pep Club girls in blue felt skirts and white long-sleeved blouses encouraged spirit at the pep rallies. Orginal humorous skits spurted enthusiasm to its peak. The flash of blue jackets and thundering voices of the Pep Club followed the team throughout the year. Peppy cheers were lead by the eight Devilette cheerleaders. Carolyn Likes, Bee Kollmorgen, Judy Heinemann, Jane Jeffrey, and Beverly Milliken were the first team cheerleaders. Second team cheers were lead by Nila Foster, Roe Jean Woehler, and Judy Weible. Alternate Judy Korth filled in when others were ill or absent. The Pep Band brought spirit to a climax at each home game.

In order to raise money for the annual sports banquet held in the spring, members of the Pep Club sold at every home game.

Officers for this year were: president, Sandra Davis; vice president, Ellen Schulz; secretary, Judy Woods; and treasurer, Phyllis Cook. Miss Bilson and Miss Ebmeier were the sponsors.

Citizens Show Increased Interest in Education

Junior: "Dad and Mom, do you know my teachers?"
Dad and Mom: "No, I don't believe we do."
Junior: "Well how do you and my teachers expect to raise me if you don't even know one another?"

The above problem is not so great at Wayne City Schools, for parents and teachers make an effort to know one another. Through informal visits and the annual open house, teachers and parents talk over some of the educational problems of today. Between four and five hundred parents and citizens showed an increased interest in education by attending this year's open house.

A good relationship must exist between parents, teachers, and school board members if they are to attain their one common goal--better education.

A good education system helps raise all the standards of a community. Surveys have shown that a good education systemand prosperous business conditions go hand in hand.

A Better School Makes a Better Community!

Teachers and school board members get to know one another better at their two annual dinners.

Mr. Mines welcomes the teachers to the teacher-school board dinner.

Willoughby "yes mam'm" Adams spent 16 years of his life with dominating "old maid" aunts, Louise, Olga, and Hester. Willoughby didn't have a date for the prom; but after his aunts found this out, they arranged three dates for him.

After a painless sock on the jaw over Carol, the girl he really admired, he pawned off Janet and Marybell on Stan and Mike. Through much frustration and persuasion by "Inner Willy," Willoughby finally became a man, ready to face the world.

President Mary Schroeder reads the official guide book to the other F. H. A. officers.

"We are the Future Homemakers of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope, for we are builders of homes for America's future. . . ."

Highlight of the year was the District F. H. A. Convention held here in Wayne last fall. The tenth birthday theme was carried out in the decorations through the use of roses and large silver ten's. Miss Schmidt, the state advisor, was a special guest.

The chapter observed National F. H. A. week by doing some different activity each day. Chapter parents this year were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Willert.

This year marked the tenth anniversary of both the F.F.A. and F.H.A. The chapter presented a television program over a Sioux City television station in February telling about the aims and purposes of the organization. Merle Roeber and Harlan Ruwe were the City High boys who were on the program.

The chapter was represented at the District and State Judging Contests as well as the Speech and Parliamentary Contests.

Thespians Encourage Dramatic Interests

Thespians keep busy during the school year by presenting one-act plays to various organizations. Gale Bathke, Eileen Flege, Roe Jean Woehler, and Renee Wiltse present "In Martha's Sitting Room" for the D.A.R.

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies."

The highlight of this year's Thespian Society was their trip to Omaha, Nebraska to attend the first Thespian Regional Convention ever held in Nebraska. Eldridge Foster, Sandra Haas, Joleen Nelson, Eileen Flege, DeMares Woehler, Sandra Witmer, Roe Jean Woehler, Mary Pawelski, and Mary Schroeder were the members who attended; and they were sponsored by Mr. Gilreath, Miss Ross, and Miss Bornhoft.

Plays given during the year included "Father of the Year," presented for the Woman's Club and the Music Boosters, and "In Martha's Sitting Room," presented for the D.A.R.

"W" Club Promotes Good Sportsmanship

Wayne High School's "W" club, with 27 members this year, is dedicated to furthering sports activities in the school, assuring all boys a fair chance to acquire letters in sports, and fostering friendship among athletes.

The group helped sponsor Homecoming and selects the football king and queen who are honored at one of the games. The "W" club also makes awards in all sports at the annual honors event each spring.

The attendants chosen by the Pep Club were Judy Heinemann, Bee Kollmorgen, Sherry Pryor, Beverly Milliken, and Ellen Schulz; and the "W" Club selected Charles Mellor, Larry Sheppard, Don Wightman, Larry Hofeldt, and Glen Houdersheldt. From these ten nominees Charles Mellor and Judy Heinemann were chosen Grid King and Grid Queen by the student body.

Coach Maciejewski's daughters, Karen and Carol Ann, led the royal procession as crown bearers. Mr. Maciejewski placed the blue and white crown upon King Charles's head. He in turn crowned his Queen, Judy, with a jeweled miniature crown. The next dance following the coronation was reserved for the royalty.

On Friday afternoon a pep rally was held downtown. The Pep Band led the parade and procession. That night at the half-time ceremonies, flowers were presented to the Queen and her attendants. The week's activities came to a climax when Wayne and South Sioux battled to a 12 to 12 tie on the gridiron.

"United Nations must come to the rescue of the nations in North Africa," says Chuck Koeber in one of his extemporaneous speeches.

"Resolved, that governmental subsidies should be granted according to need to high school graduates who qualify for additional training."

That is the topic that has been repeated so many times by the debate students this year. For several months they worked on cases, both affirmative and negative. Day after day in class the familiar words from the teacher, Mr. Gilreath, came ringing to the ears of the eager students, "Debate tomorrow!"

Sandra Davis, Jane Jeffrey, Ellen Schulz, and Mary Granquist debated in the first tournament which was held as Sioux City while Chuck Koeber entered the extemporaneous speaking. The girls were not fortunate enough or experienced enough to win any debates, but it was good experience for them. Results of future tournaments were better.

Debaters found that public speaking is an asset that will always be of value to them.

ATHLETICS

Gridders

Larry Hofeldt, Coach Mac, Jerry McGinn, Coach Hansen, and Varner Victor watch a tense moment on the field.

WAYNE 6 – ALLEN 0

In the opening gridiron game, Coach Harold Maciejewski's Blue Devils started a successful season by winning from Allen 6 to 0. Bob Schwarzenbach made the touchdown for Wayne. The Blue Devils showed little in the way of an effective offense against the Allen Eagles. Larry Sheppard and Bob Vogel showed good defensive work for Wayne. The highlight of the game came in the third quarter when Wightman's pass to Hofeldt was good for 24 yards. Wayne continued from there to score.

WAYNE 33 – MADISON 7

After winning from Allen, Wayne High turned loose their offensive guns and rolled to a 33 to 7 victory over the Madison High Dragons. This victory was the first for Wayne in the quest for a Husker Conference title. Featured was the running done by the backfield, particularly Don Wightman and Larry Hofeldt, as well as the defensive work of Bob Vogel. Wightman, Schwarzenbach, and Houdersheldt were the scorers for the game. In 17 attempts, fullback Larry Hofeldt made 126 yards.

WAYNE 26 – HARTINGTON HOLY TRINITY 14

With a more confident team, Mac's Blue Devils rolled to an easy 26 to 14 victory over Hartington Holy Trinity. Glen Houdersheldt sparked the Wayne win by having one touchdown run for 29 yards and having two other touchdowns called back because of penalties. Larry Sheppard, Bob Longe, and Terry Wehrer showed attentive alertness by throwing key blocks which helped set up touchdowns. Schwarzenbach scored one touchdown on a 65-yard run.

WAYNE 31 – NELIGH 6

Racing for the Husker Conference title, Wayne downed the Neligh Warriors 31 to 6. Wayne played with the limited services of fullback Larry Hofeldt, who had a knee injury. The big senior was used briefly as a decoy on Wayne's first three touchdown plays. Jerry Hendrickson, who took over Hofeldt's kicking chores, averaged 43 yards on four kicks, including one kick of 58 yards. In the first quarter, Glen Houdersheldt ran 53 yards for a touchdown. In the second quarter he again broke away and ran 65 yards for another touchdown.

Have 6-2-1 Season

WAYNE 7 – STANTON 21

The Stanton Mustangs smashed the Blue Devils' dream for the Husker Conference title by beating them 21 to 7. It was Wayne High's first defeat of the season. Charles Mellor grabbed a pass from Don Wightman and ran for a touchdown. Vogel and Wehrer again played a good defensive game. Lueders and Pospishil worked hard trying to stop the off-tackle plays.

WAYNE 48 – HARTINGTON 12

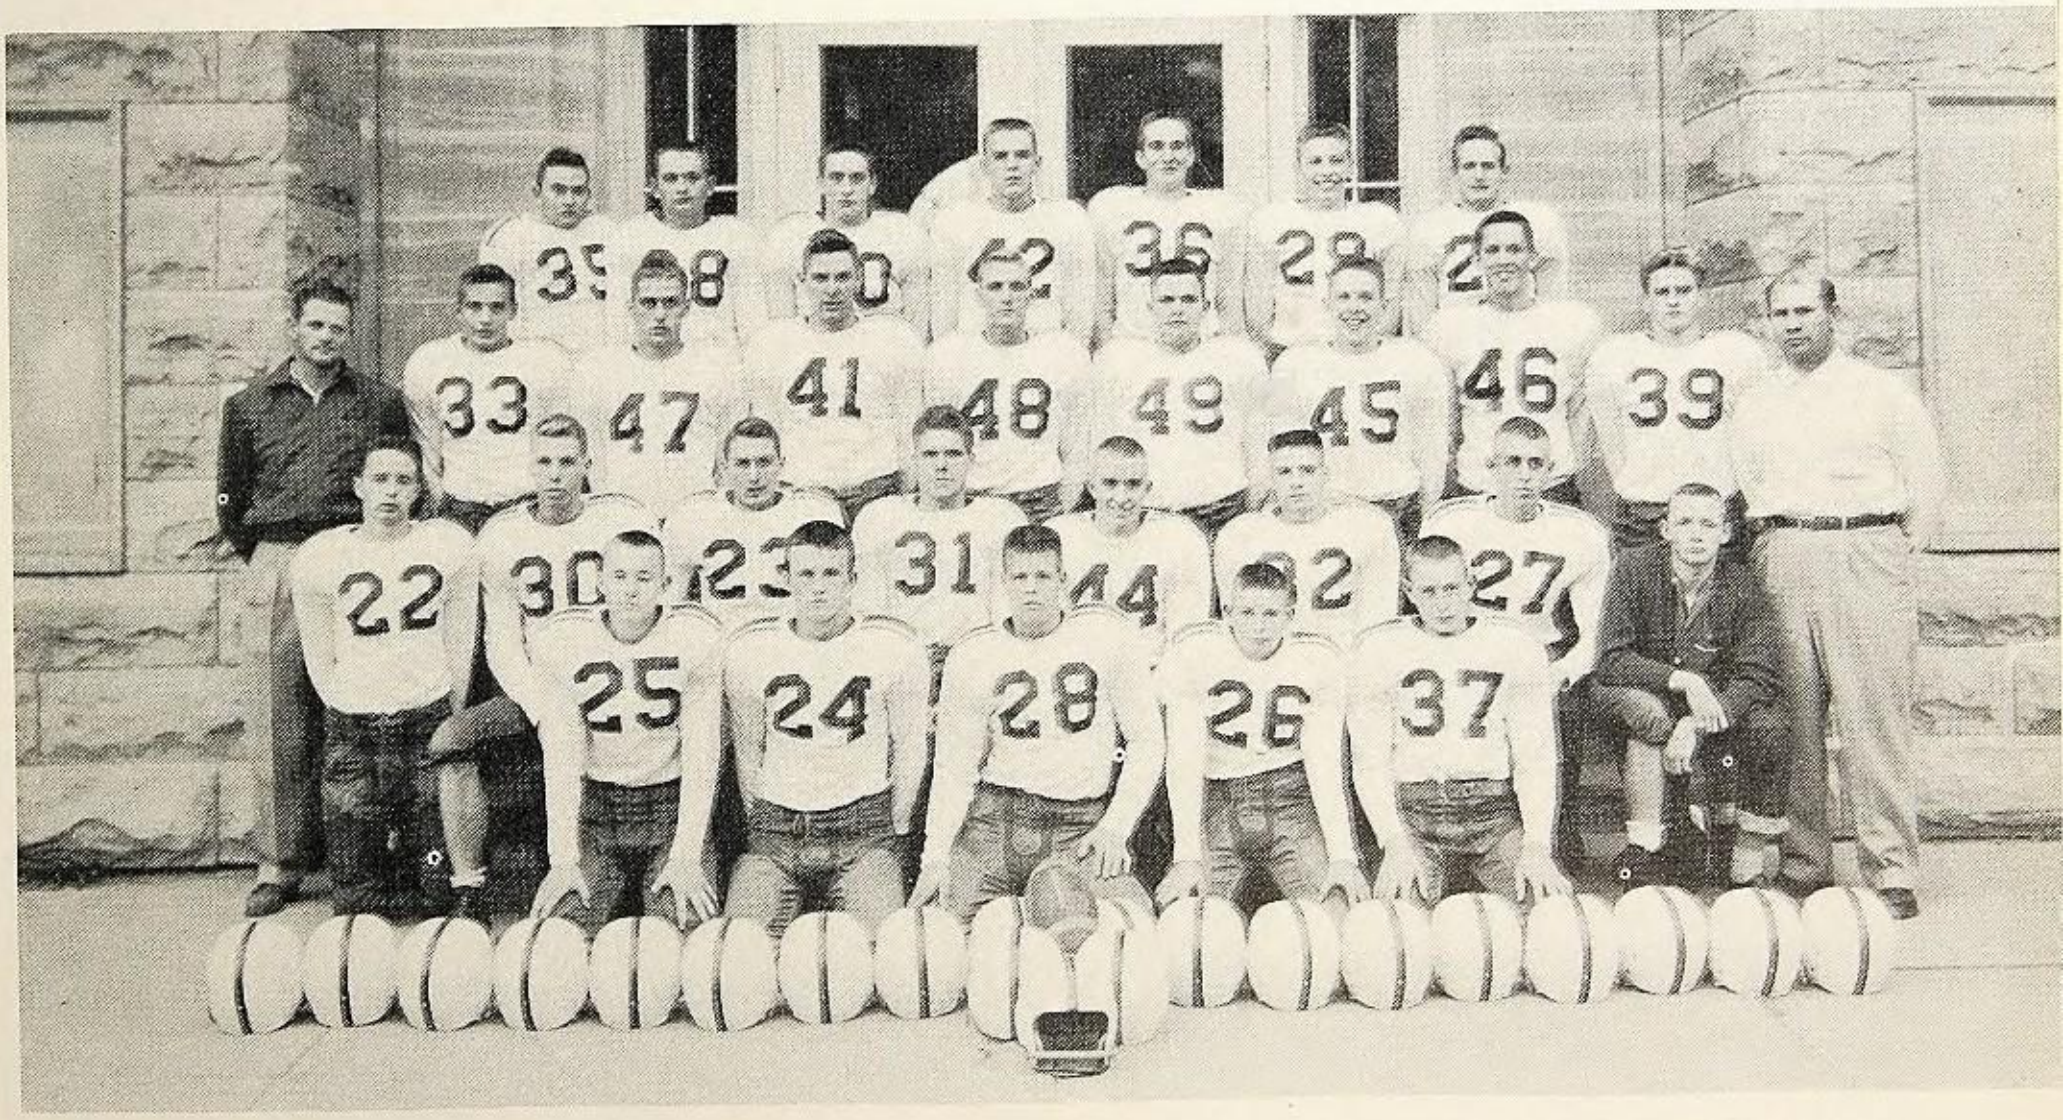
The Wayne High Eleven opened their offensive guns against Hartington, High beating them 48 to 12. Jerry McGinn, Blue Devil halfback, suffered a leg injury which put him out for the remainder of the season. Hofeldt, Kern, Schwarzenbach, Wightman, and Houdersheldt were the point-getters of the game. In the second half Kern hit right tackle and ran 57 yards for a Wayne touchdown. Bob Pile threw a key block aiding Schwarzenbach's touchdown. Many of the reserves had a chance to play.

WAYNE 12 – SOUTH SIOUX 12

After an easy victory over Hartington, Wayne had their homecoming game with South Sioux City. Statistics showed that the game was almost as even as the 12 to 12 score. Wayne missed a few chances to score against the Cardinals. Larry Sheppard recovered a fumble deep in South Sioux territory, and in the next play Larry Hofeldt scored for six points. Wightman's four-yard pass to Chuck Mellor netted the second touchdown. In this game Norman Pospishil and Don Wightman collided when stopping South Sioux's attempt to run the extra point.

WAYNE 34 – WISNER 0

Wayne High's Blue Devils crushed Wisner 34 to 0 in the final conference contest. It was Wayne's third conference win against one defeat. Glen Houdersheldt scored two touchdowns to lead the attack. Don Wightman was placing his passes well. He threw a 38-yard strike to Tietgen and another for 22 yards to Houdersheldt. Larry Sheppard and Larry Tietgen did a fine defensive job as Tietgen threw a key block that but Schwarzenbach in the open. Bob Pile played a good defensive game also. Many of the second team had an opportunity to play during this game.



FOURTH ROW: Darrel Gilliland, Larry Milliken, Terry Wehrer, Bob Schwarzenbach, Bob Longe, Dennis Manske, Jerry Hendrickson.

The passing chores for the team were handled most of the time by quarterback, Don Wightman.

WAYNE 0 – PLAINVIEW 20

In the final game of the 1955 season, Wayne was defeated by a smooth running Plainview team 20 to 0. The Blue Devils were unable to get a sustained offensive attack going. Fumbles played an important part in the outcome of the game.

Senior fullback Larry Hofeldt was the main offensive threat throughout the season.

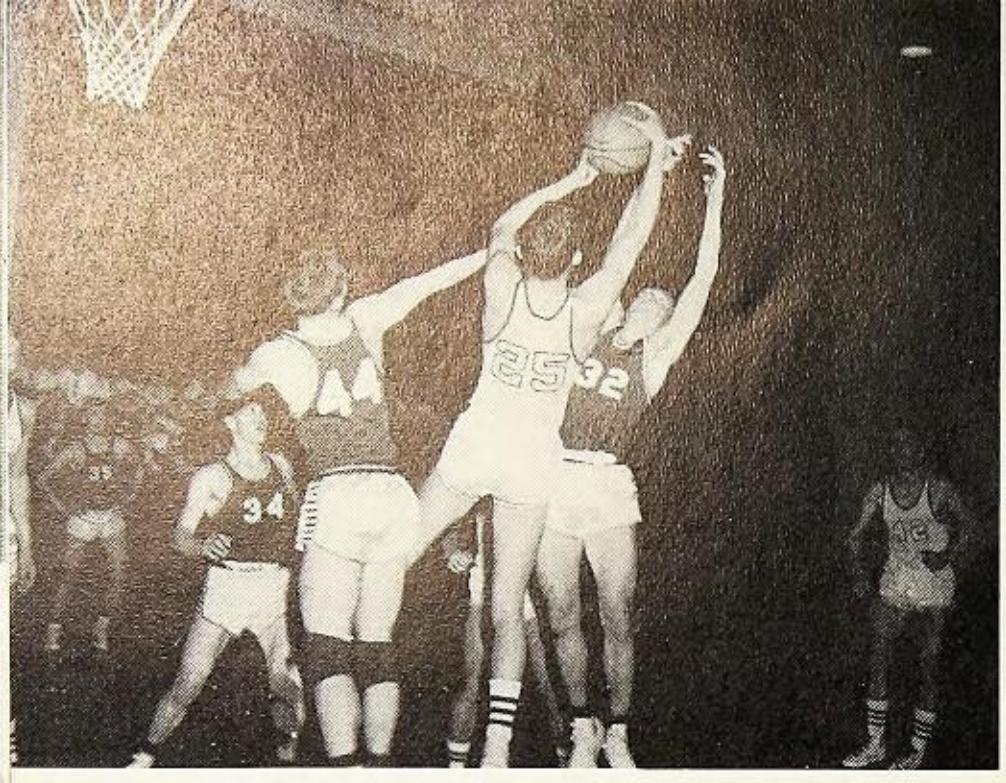
20 Wins — 1 Defeat

Two Loup City players leap high in their vain attempt to stop Hofeldt from shooting. Wayne defeated Loup City in the semifinals of the State Tournament 65 to 50 as they made a new scoring record for Class B.



Ken Dahl, No. 25, uses his height to good advantage in grabbing a rebound during the Pierce game.

Wayne controls the boards in the District Tournament finals against Pender. Bob Schwarzenbach, No. 42, leaps high in the air as Glen Houdersheldt, No. 22, gets in position for a pass.

The Wayne High Blue Devils opened their basketball season which led them to the State Class "B" Championship by racking Hartington 64 to 37 The starting five were Larry Hofeldt, Glen Houdersheldt, Larry Tietgen, Don Wightman and Bob Schwarzenbach. Hofeldt was high point man.

Wayne staged a brilliant exhibition of scoring power and team play at Tekamah which resulted in an 87 to 52 victory. Dahl and Hofeldt led the attack with 15 and 20 points respectively. The reserves had a chance to show their power throughout the game.

In the third game of the season, Wayne squeezed by Norfolk 55 to 53, coming from behind to win. Dahl's points in the fourth quarter helped clinch the victory, as Hofeldt again led the scoring. The finish of the game was not as close as the score might indicate. Norfolk made a basket near the close of the game to close the margin to 2 points.

The Blue Devils copped their fourth straight victory by downing Plainview. The score was 66 to 41 with Larry Hofeldt as high point man with 29 points. Wayne was hitting 37 per cent of its shots.

Pierce was swamped by Wayne 101 to 36 as Wayne High made a new school scoring record. The Blue Devils had no trouble whatsoever winning the game. The reserve team played half of the game. The high scorers were Hofeldt, Dahl, and Houdersheldt and the rest of the points were distributed among the remaining players.

The Blue Devils showed their defensive ability as they scored an easy 85 to 50 victory over Madison. Hofeldt lead the scoring attack with 23 points and Jerry Hendrickson added 13 points. This victory put Wayne in first place in the West Division of the Husker Conference.

Despite one of Wayne's worst performances of the basketball season, the Blue Devils swept to their second Husker Conference win by defeating Stanton, 61 to 42. Glen Houdersheldt scored 18 points to be high point man. Wayne was handicapped by poor ball handling and cold shooting.

Good outside shooting by Schwarzenbach, Wightman, and Houdersheldt brought the Blue Devils their third Husker conference victory as Neligh fell 80 to 58. Hofeldt and Houdersheldt paced the scoring attack. Wayne was hitting 50 per cent of its shots in the first half while Neligh was hitting a cold 17 per cent.

The Blue Devils racked South Sioux 82 to 65 to win their ninth straight game. South Sioux used a tight press throughout the game as they committed 28 fouls. Wayne made this factor pay off as they dunked 26 of 45 free throws. Houdersheldt and Hofeldt paced the scoring attack with 17 and 38 points respectively.

Blair fell in a ragged tilt, 72 to 53 as Larry Hofeldt paced the team with 27 points. A good job of defensive playing was shown by Schwarzenbach and Wightman. Blair was handicapped by the loss of three regulars during their contest with Wayne.

The first defeat of the season was handed to Wayne by Omaha Holy Name who won 54 to 45. Wayne was handicapped by a 6 foot 7 inch senior opponent. The team was having trouble in getting the rebounds and hit a low percentage of their shots although Larry Hofeldt was very accurate with his

Wayne thumped West Point 89 to 56 as Larry Hofeldt lead the scoring attack. All of the reserves played. West Point was stymied by Wayne's height, ball handling, and good shooting.

The Wisner five concentrated on stopping Larry Hofeldt and as a result Bob Schwarzenbach fired in 7 out of 10 shots. At half time Dahl and Houdersheldt had 4 personal fouls each. Houdersheldt fouled out in the third quarter, but Dennis Manske proved a capable replacement as Wayne went ahead to win 80 to 60. By winning this game, Wayne won the West Division of the Husker Conference.

Wayne took the Husker Conference title by whipping Pender 73 to 48. Kenny Dahl was high point man with 17 points. Pender was handicapped because of the loss of their best player, Dick Shipwright, who averaged over 30 points a game.

The St. Bon, game proved to be one of the best games of the season. St. Bon. had a slight lead on Wayne throughout the game. In the last remaining second, Glen Houdersheldt shot and tied the score. In the overtime Larry Hofeldt made 7 points to help Wayne win the game 65 to 58.

Wayne beat Stanton in their first game in the District Class B Tournament by 77 to 56. The Blue Devils were helped by the shooting of Hofeldt, Schwarzenbach and Kenny Dahl. The game was very slow because of the 51 fouls called by officials. Each team attempted 42 free throws and converted on 26 of them.

In their second tournament game the Blue Devils had a 29-point margin as they beat Wisner 95 to 66. Again Hofeldt was high point man with 28 points. Wayne was getting a lot of the rebounds.

A 13-point margin won the District Class B trophy for Wayne when they edged Pender 73 to 60. Hofeldt was high point man with 22 points while Shipwright from Pender had 26 points. Pender's best man, Shipwright, was covered by Houdersheldt and Hofeldt making it hard for him to shoot.

Wayne won a state tournament bid by swamping Howells 83 to 50 in the Class B playoff at the Norfolk Auditorium. Howells offered little competition for Wayne after the first quarter. Glen Houdersheldt meshed 26 points to lead the Blue Devil attack.

Wayne's height and shooting proved to be too much for Loup City as the Blue Devils downed the Red Raiders 65 to 50 in a loosely played ball game. Dahl and Hofeldt scored 19 and 18 points respectively. Wayne was never behind after the opening minutes of play.

Wayne High brought a climax to their 1955-1956 basketball season by downing Hebron in the State Tournament finals 61 to 56. Wayne came from behind in the second half to win. The team set three new records during the tournament by breaking the Class B team scoring record, 65 points; total of opponents and team's score, 117 points; and Ken Dahl broke the free throw record in the Hebron game when he made 13 free throws in a single game.

Coach Maciejewski has coached Wayne High athletic teams for the past three years; and he, along with assistant coach Love, has developed teams which are highly regarded by opponents throughout the state. The coaches have guided Wayne basketball teams to the State meet the past three seasons.

Larry Hofeldt, No. 52, tries for "two" of the 101 points scored against Pierce as Don Wightman, No. 45, and Ken Dahl, No. 25, play for the rebound.

Larry Hofeldt makes a "bucket" as Kenneth Dahl, No. 25, waits his turn.

Cooperation among the players and coach was a determining factor in the success of this year's team.

Wightman, No. 45, arches the ball "homeward" as Schwarzenbach, No. 42, and Dahl, No. 25, cover the play.

The above air view shows the business district and a large portion of Wayne, the county seat of Wayne County.

Wayne is a leading business center of northeast Nebraska. Its stores provide a wide selection of merchandise and services for the entire surrounding area.

The citizens of Wayne are proud to live in this progressive and growing community.

Don Wightman, W Club president, commends the Pep Club for the fine banquet and for their loyal support throughout the year.

Two Banquets Climax Athletic Season

Wayne High athletes were honored with two banquets--the Chambers' of Commerce banquet and the pep club banquet.

During the Chambers' banquet, athletes from both Wayne High and Hahn High were awarded letter certificates. Special awards were presented to the outstanding athletes from each school, Larry Hofeldt and Roger Anderson.

Head basketball coach Jerry Bush from the University of Nebraska kept the crowd entertained with his comments on the events of the past season.

Charles Koeber, junior class president, presents Mr. Johnson, a class sponsor, with a boutonniere in recognition of Mr. Johnson's time and effort in preparing for the banquet.

"Over the Rainbow" is Jr. - Sr. Banquet Theme

A huge rainbow with a pot of gold at each end was the main attraction for those attending the last social function of the year, the junior-senior banquet. Sophomore waiters and waitresses wore pastel colors to harmonize with the theme.

"Time Out for Ginger" is a story which starts with a fairly staid banker who finds the creative release he needs by lecturing to high school classes on the subject of self-fulfillment. His youngest daughter, Ginger, is so much impressed with his ideas that she goes out for the football team as a means of fulfillment. The complications that result make the play very entertaining.

Mr. Gilreath directed the play, and Phyllis Cook was student director.

Cindermen Win First

Wayne trackmen earned 50 1/3 points to lead all other conference schools at the Husker Conference Track Meet held at Norfolk. This was the first time Wayne High had ever won the Conference title.

The winner was decided in the last event of the day, the mile relay. Jerry Hendrickson, anchor man on the mile relay team, overcame a 35-yard lead to break the tape a foot ahead of a Neligh runner. This earned six points for Wayne and the Conference title.

Larry Hofeldt sparked the squad by winning first in the shotput, fourth in the discus, and a first place tie in the high jump.

Earlier in the season, Wayne entered the Columbus St. Bonaventure meet and came home with the first-place trophy. The squad also participated in the Columbus Invitational and the Norfolk Invitational before entering the Conference Meet.

Larry Hofeldt, former Class B shotput champion, holds records at the Columbus St. Bonaventure Meet, the Columbus High School Meet, and the Husker Conference Meet. All records that he has set are over 50 feet.

At the District Track Meet, Wayne qualified five cindermen for the State Meet at Lincoln. They were Bill Kern, 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, broad jump, and 880-yard relay; Jerry Hendrickson, 880-yard relay; Larry Hofeldt, shotput, discus, and high jump; Jerry McGinn, 880-yard relay; and Robert Schwarzenbach 180-yard low hurdles and 880-yard relay.

Shotputter Larry Hofeldt practices in preparation for the next meet.

This 880-yard relay team composed of Bill Kern, Jerry McGinn, Robert Schwarzenbach, and Jerry Hendrickson ran a 1:35.4 race at the State Track Meet to place fourth.

Conference Title

Two Wayne High trackmen, Bill Kern and Jerry McGinn, near the finish of the 100-yard dash during the Husker Conference Meet. They placed second and third respectively.

Wayne's relay hopes in future years rest with these four freshmen, Dick Hammer, Jim Skeahan, Dick Schmitz, and Dick Kramer.

AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee, Sweet land of lib-er-ty. Of thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died. Land of the Pilgrim's pride.
From ev'ry mountain side, Let Freedom ring!
Our fathers' God to Thee, Author of lib-er-ty, To Thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright with freedom's ho-ly light;
Protect us by Thy might, Great God, our King!

Jane Jeffrey was elected state F.H.A. historian. She, along with Miss Bilson, attended the National Convention at Chicago in July.

Through our high school years we have been building our lives. We have profited much from our classes and extra-curricular activities. Many friendships have been formed with students here and at other schools. The busy halls and classrooms of Wayne High are once more at rest for the summer, but we will always look back and remember the years we spent in preparing ourselves for the future.
